Report of the School Board.

To the Citizens of Mason :

Time, with its ceaseless tide, has brought us to the completion of another fiscal year; and it is our requisite duty and cheerful service that we present to our constituency for their honest perusal and just conclusions a brief synopsis of the schools for the past year, and what has been attempted by us to raise their standard to a higher efficiency.

We are willing to confess that our ideal of accomplishment has not been fully attained, although we are satisfied that advancement has been made in some of the departments of our school work.

Some things have appeared to interfere with the best interest of our schools, some which seemed to be Providential which of course were beyond our control: the dread disease scarlet fever entered the Spring term at the Center school, and two were stricken down; on this account the school was closed prematurely.

Scarcely had the Autumn term opened before the same disease reappeared and the school was closed for a time: before the school reopened the house was thoroughly fumigated which seemed to be effectual in eradicating the epidemic.

At No. 2, during the fall term, whooping cough showed itself, most of the pupils were affected by it, which detracted largely from the regular school work.

The Spring term opened with a Knight which proved to be so long and dark that we almost despaired of ever seeing the light. At the expiration of three weeks however, the Knight was removed, and folding her tent like the Arabs silently stole away.

In the Spring a school was opened at No. 3; it was thought best to discontinue the Fall and Winter terms because the numbers were so few.

There was no school through the entire year at No. 5, as we deemed it expedient to have them brought to the Center, and Mr. Jackson was employed for that service, which was performed in a satisfactory manner.

At No. 6 substantially the same arrangement was made with Greenville in maintaining the school as last year; they furnishing about half of the pupils, and paying half of the expense. We think the coalition has proved mutually successful, and we trust it may be continued.

An explanation is pertinent in regard to the transportation of the children of G. C. Arnold to the school at Greenville, and also their tuition. An agreement has been in force with Mr. Arnold for the past year, that the tuition in excess of twenty-five cents each, per week, for his three boys, should be paid by him, and that the said excess should be deducted from the amount to which he is entitled for transportation ($2 50 per week); and further, if the length of the school year in Greenville is greater than that in Mason, Mr. Arnold is to bear the burden in full for such excess; and he has paid one-half of the said tuition as it appears in our financial report.

Our school houses have been repaired, and the utility and the appearance is very apparent.

Three outline maps have been provided, but no new books have been purchased: we think, however, that it would be a great advantage to our schools if the Geography now being studied could be exchanged for a work more concentrated and practical, and it is to be hoped it will soon be accomplished.

It is to be regretted that our scholars are so few and scattered in the outlying sections of the town that it seems almost impossible to maintain successful schools in the several houses, as it is difficult to secure competent teachers for such positions, and the children are not enthused as they would be with larger numbers.

We appreciate all that has been said or done to make our official pathway more easy and our burden less heavy; and that we fully realize that all things, though some may be adverse, work together for good to them who are exercised thereby.

Grateful for the cloak of charity so tenderly wrapped about us, and earnestly desiring that the efficiency of our schools will be largely increased in the future under the administration of a more competent school board,

We are sincerely yours,

MINNIE B. WHEELER,
C. B. GOODWIN,
JOHN T. SMITH,

School Board.
